Your people

Stewardship

The conducting, supervising, or managing of something, especially: the careful and responsible management of something entrusted to one's care.

Culture

The set of shared attitudes, values, goals, and practices that characterizes an institution or organization.

Simply Said

A place to belong.

Culture

Great things can happen when ministry teams share a common set of values.

These values will have enormous influence on the culture of your ministry.

Reggie Joiner

“If you want your leaders to make a weekly investment in kids, then you need to make a weekly investment in your leaders.”

You really can't see culture change. It's like sitting in a pot of water as it heats up. One day look up and realize it has changed.

Zechariah 4:10 a

“Do not despise these small beginnings, for the LORD rejoices to see the work begin....”

Nehemiah 6:3

“I am carrying on a great project and cannot go down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and go down to you?””

You don't have influence because you're right. You have influence because you care.

If you really want to influence the next generation, you actually have to spend some of your time with people who are spending time with kids.

Connection It gives purpose and meaning to our lives.

You first are the “people” who matter most.

Boundaries matter

Healthy people have boundaries,
When we don't set boundaries than we can easily become resentful and bitter.

Boundaries matter

Generosity can't exist without boundaries.

I am
Enough

I'm Enough

When we work from a place that says I'm enough. We are kinder and gentler to the people around us but more importantly to ourselves.
