TODAY'S HOPE IN THE FAMILY ACTIVITIES

HEY FAMILIES!

It's a new month and we learning about friendship!
We looked at how we need to friends to teach us different things!

PRAY TOGETHER

“Dear God, thank You for showing us the importance of godly and healthy friendships. Help us be a good friend to those You have put in our lives. Please help us when we are tempted to not be a good friend. Help us to rely on and trust You in our friendships because that is the only way you can choose your friends carefully, amen.”

ACTIVITY: FRIENDSHIP SKILLS

WHAT YOU NEED

“Good Friends” Activity page, green and red markers or crayons

WHAT YOU DO

- Pass out the “Good Friends” page.
- Encourage the kids to color “what good friends do” in green and “what bad friends do” in red.
- As they work, engage them in conversation about being a good friend. Ask:
  - How do you know when someone’s a good friend?
  - How do you know you’re BEING a good friend?
  - Who’s the greatest friend ever? (Jesus)

WHAT YOU SAY

“Who can tell me what it means to influence someone? (To affect or change their behavior or how they think) Did you know that you are influenced by others whether you know it or not? That’s why it’s important to choose your friends carefully. If someone is always unfriendly and hurting you or not being nice, you might need to protect yourself and kindly walk away. If you struggle to know what the correct thing is to do, talk to a trusted adult to help you deal with the situation. One way you can have good friends is by BEING a good friend.”
