TODAY'S HOPE IN THE FAMILY ACTIVITIES

HEY FAMILIES!

What a special friendship Elijah and Elisha shared! We can learn to encourage our friends and be good friends to those around us!

PRAY TOGETHER

“God, You are awesome! Help us remember this week that friends encourage one another. We want to be the kind of friends who love at all times, especially when our friends are sad or need encouragement. Help us remember to use our words and actions to show our friends how important they are to us. Thanks for loving us, God. We love you. In Jesus’ name we pray, amen.”

ACTIVITY: ENCOURAGE ON

WHAT YOU NEED

“Encouragement Cards” Activity Page, scissors, stickers, crayons or markers

WHAT YOU DO

- Pass out an “Encouragement Cards” page to each kid.
- Read the front of the cards to the kids and point out the blank.
- Explain that kids will write one thing they love about a friend on the blank line, and give the card to that friend as a way to encourage them.
- Instruct the kids to cut the cards apart and decorate the blank side of all eight cards with the provided supplies.

WHAT YOU SAY

“Raise your hand if you like to receive notes from a friend. Me, too! This week, we’re learning that friends encourage one another. One way we can encourage our friends is to give them a sweet note. On your cards, it says, ‘You are . . . blank.’ I want you to think of a friend you could give one of these cards to and fill in the blank as a way to encourage that friend. You might say, ‘You are good at math,’ or ‘You are patient with your sister.’ What are some other things you could write to a friend on these cards? So that’s your challenge this week! Since friends encourage one another, let’s do just that by giving out notes of encouragement to our friends! Do you think you can hand out all eight cards?”
