TODAY'S HOPE IN THE FAMILY ACTIVITIES

HEY FAMILIES!

We learnt today that God is a promise keeper and He is always working behind the scenes to keep His promises. Remember, no matter what happens, We can have hope because God keeps His promises. Let's pray.

PRAY TOGETHER

"Dear God, thank You for reminding us today that You are a promise keeper. Remind us that we can always trust You to keep Your promise to listen and help us deal with our concerns, worries, and disappointments. Please help us with these specific worries and stresses that we hold in our hands. Amen."

ACTIVITY 1: FILL-IN BOOKMARKS

WHAT YOU NEED

“Bookmark” Activity, Bibles, markers, hole punch, yarn, decorating supplies

WHAT YOU DO

- Look up this month’s memory verse
- Explain to the kids that this month’s memory verse is on their bookmarks, but there are words missing. The missing words are written under each blank line, but the letters are scrambled.
- Instruct the kids to unscramble the letters to figure out the missing words.
- Punch a hole at the top of the bookmarks. Loop yarn through the hole and tie a knot.
- Invite kids to decorate their bookmarks.

WHAT YOU SAY

“This verse is a great reminder that God promised to send the Messiah which means ‘Savior.’ Many years before Jesus was born, God promised that the Savior He would send would be a relative of King David. This verse is what the angel said when He told the shepherds that Jesus had been born, who was a relative of King David. God kept His promise because God always keeps His promises. Place your bookmark in a special place to remind you that we can have hope because God keeps His promises.”

ACTIVITY 2: PROMISES MADE, PROMISES KEPT

WHAT YOU NEED

Scraps of colored paper or colored index cards, markers, glue sticks, sheet of paper

WHAT YOU DO

- Pass out a paper scrap or an index card and marker to each kid.
- Encourage the kids to think of a promise someone made to them or to someone else and draw a picture to represent that promise on their paper.
- As kids finish, encourage them to glue their promise pictures to a blank sheet of paper to create a collage
- Once you've covered most of the paper, discuss whether the promise that was made was a promise that was kept.
- Grab a marker and write the word "HOPE" in large letters across the center of the collage

WHAT YOU SAY

"Sometimes people make promises to us, or we make promises to others like those you drew, but we don't keep them. Maybe a friend or family member promised something and they didn't follow through. But God isn't like us. God never breaks a promise. When God says something will happen, it will. The Bible is full of God's promises—promises that He already kept. He kept His promise to send a Savior, and He's STILL keeping promises. We can place all our HOPE and TRUST in God because He is completely trustworthy. We can have hope because God keeps His promises."
